Under the Big Top

THE GREATEST SHOW IN HEAVEN

This group is founded by Justin and Reecie Gilmore, in memory of her two year old son, Clinton Ryan Miller, who passed away from drowning.

Our mission is to provide financial aid for end-of-life expenses and to provide emotional support for families who have suffered the loss of a child from one year old to seventeen years old (or currently enrolled in high school.) It is also our goal to provide our community with prevention initiatives to help reduce preventable child loss.

Founded in July 2021, The RescYou Group has supported over 250 families of child loss between the ages of 1 to 18 years old.

Cook-Off, Games, Drinks, Music, Prizes, & More!

Join the RescYOU group for our third annual RescYOU Fest on November 16th, 2024. The RescYOU Group is a 501c3 non-profit that was founded in 2021 by Justin and Reecie Gilmore. We are able to provide financial aid for end of life expenses, along with grief counseling, support groups, and sibling support at no cost to the families. The RescYOU group is the only non-profit in Acadiana that offers combined services and resources to support bereaved families of school-age child loss.

At this event, sponsors and guests will be able to celebrate and honor the precious lives we have lost throughout our community. This event will include a cook-off, drinks, face painting, a scavenger hunt, children's games, live entertainment, and our favorite, children memorial booths. Each memorial booth will have a game set up with a prize for each player and will be decorated and themed according to the child's personality. Whether the child loved sports, dancing, exploring, animals, or cowboys, each booth will allow you to get to know more about them while celebrating the legacy they left behind. Although this day can be a reminder of how many lives have been taken too soon, we like to think of it as more of a celebration of life and a platform of remembrance. A celebration to honor and remember, a celebration to appreciate our community, and a celebration that reminds you, you are not alone. All proceeds from The RescYOU Fest will go directly to The RescYou Group, funding all programs which benefit families in Acadiana.

Our Why

On June 7, 2008, tragedy struck our family when my two-year-old son, Clinton Ryan, drowned in our pond. I was devastated and didn't know what to do next. I had become a member of the club no one wants to belong to. It took me a year to begin to re-engage with life and find a sense of purpose. I longed to connect with other bereaved parents who understood my pain. I recognized that there was an underserved population in our community, specifically parents who had lost school-age children. These families needed support and a safe space where they could find healing and understanding. It became my heart's passion to serve families of child loss.

The RescYOU Group was established in 2021. It was founded with the intention of providing everything I lacked when I lost my son, Clint, and everything I needed during that difficult time. I am proud that families in Acadiana can turn to us for guidance, a step-by-step process, and a compassionate environment to mend their broken hearts. Through our organization, we offer a platform for remembrance and hope for the future. The act of helping others has a profound impact, spreading love and fostering healing. When we extend our support to others, we also find healing ourselves, discover purpose in our pain, and provide an outlet for our love to go. Despite our children no longer being with us physically, they remain alive within us and within the walls of TRG. These children continue to inspire us and guide us. It is our honor to share them with you so that they are remembered forever.

- Reecie Gilmore, Founder of TRG and Clinton Ryan's mom.
